APOSTLE & MOTHER WILLIAMS

"But from the beginning of the creation God
made them male and female. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and
cleave to his wife;"
Mark 10: 6-7

Apostle Charles Williams is not only a dedicated spiritual leader but also a family man and devoted husband to his loving wife, Mother Patricia Williams. Together they have raised six children and have been married for over 50 years. Apostle Williams often reflects on how his family has been a great source of inspiration and support in his spiritual journey. He frequently talks about the importance of a strong family unit and encourages others to not only focus on their relationship with God but also on building healthy relationships with their families.

Apostle Williams and his wife have also worked together in their ministry, with Mother Williams playing an active role in the women's ministry of their church. She has also been a source of inspiration to many women, particularly those who are struggling in their relationships. Her wisdom and grace have won her respect and admiration from many, and her partnership with Apostle Williams has made him a beloved leader in his community. Together, they have shown what it means to be a true example of love and devotion both in a spiritual and a familial context.
